Description

The Aurum Logo to be on the left chest.

The Ladies Simola Golf Shirt is an everyday corporate wear item that's great for both in and out of the office. Made from 170g/m2 polyester, the short sleeve golf shirt has moisture-wicking to draw moisture away from your body to keep you cool and an anti-microbial finish to keep you smelling fresh on even the warmest days. Features include a two-piece self-fabric collar, contrasting colour inserts on the shoulders and back with matching contrast stitching detail on the three-button placket and side slits. Part of the Slazenger collection and has a reflective logo on the bottom hem.
