Description

The Wrigley Cooler - 30-Can is an over-the-shoulder cooler bag designed to store up to 30 cans of your favourite drinks. Made from 600D fabric with a PEVA lining for insulation, the cooler bag has an adjustable shoulder strap that can also be removed so that it doesn't get in the way, two carry handles, one main storage compartment with zip-around closure and a metal bottle opener attached on the outside so you're already ready to open a cold one! Available in contrasting black-and-check pattern.
